

Abstract

The present invention relates to a process for the back-surface grinding of wafers using films which have a support layer, which is known per se, and an adhesion layer which can be polymerized in steps, and to films which include such an adhesion layer which can be polymerized in steps, and to the use thereof.